GEORGE ALEXANDER YARID PLAINTIFF

VS

JEAN JACK GIBSON

LUIS B. CALEX

HARRY BENSON

REGINALD FRANKLIN

MOTION FOR SEAL

FILED
JUN - 7 2010
US Court of Appeals
4th Circuit

I'm requesting a seal for this case. Information has been compromised on the internet about my previous court case in the lower courts. These individuals used PACER to obtain my place of work, work number, cell number, and financial affairs. I have had to change my cell phone number twice, because I have been called at all hours of the night due to the leaking of my number in the lower courts. Someone has placed disgusting content in my mail box which is a criminal matter in play with the UNITED STATE POSTAL SERVICE. In relations to this certain individual who has been on my property, admitting about defecating on my yard. Once again, this information being leaked in the lower courts took a turn for the worst and was the cause for all this happening. For privacy and security reasons, I'm asking the courts to place a seal on my case for these reasons. I'm enclosing, along with the seal, different images and discussion from these individuals about my previous court case and information. For this reason, I respectfully request a motion for a seal on this case. I will thank the courts in this matter in advance.

Sincerely,

George Alexander Yarid

Truly amazing words

Here's how I imagine the rest of that went: (Sorry if this is long, skip if you don't feel like reading it)

Shortly thereafter, GAY ventures to the Federal Courthouse in Richmond and enters the Clerk's Office. He approaches the first Clerk's Assistant; he sees and they recoil in horror: the beast of a man before them is unwashed and grotesque; his thick, greasy hair is unwashed yet combed to prominently feature a white spot that may or may not resemble matted semen residue. Sweat and grime ooze out of every skin pore and through his cheap red shirt. He asks how he can file a lawsuit himself because "some clumps on the Internet keep updating this work," and he wants to make them stop. The Clerk's Assistant stares blankly as GAY launches into a tirade about his intellectual properties (sic) and how Youtube and the DMCA have his back and he needs a friend. Because GAY has his own television show with DVDs coming out and U2N may pick him up soon. The Clerk's Assistant quotes a standard filing fee in the upwards of several hundred dollars. GAY casts a furtive glance to make sure you are not something awful as usual, then leans in and slowly whispers... "I'm poor."

The Clerk's Assistant leans back to avoid his rancid body odor and bad breath. She hastily reaches into a stack of forms and pulls out the Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis and instructs him to write a Complaint and return all the forms to the Clerk's Office. GAY gives a leering, creepy smile for this and is within reach: he will simply fill out a form, write his Complaint that will be studied in law school for years to come, and sit back and relax while swift judicial justice sweeps through the Internet. GAY hastily returns home and scans the single greatest Complaint of all time. John and he also admits that he's dirt poor and not a millionaire with a six income figure, but only the Clerk will know that and who cares, he's about to win, anyway! He'll show those lawyers who told him he didn't have a case or people who said "let it go!" hell, maybe he should have gone to law school. Using Lorelei Hutz, Mallock, and Ben Horne lawyer brother from Twin Peaks as examples, GAY channels all their energy into attacking the Internet. He's so close to victory, he can almost imagine turning in the paperwork, the Judge glancing at it, siding with GAY, assuaging a "resturant" and then he'll just mail some copies to Youtube for their records and enjoy a nice beer while Kevin congratulates him on his life's greatest achievement.

GAY returns to the Clerk's office, which causes the staff to scatter like cockroaches, leaving only a few employees like deer in headlights to help him, and hands over the stack of papers. The Clerk's Assistant begrudgingly takes the papers and stamps them "Filed," then tells GAY he'll receive copies in the mail. GAY thanks them and walks off into the sunset. The cry of "WOOOOOOOO!" echoes through the building.

Until the paper hits the judge's desk and he is bewildered and amused. He reads the Complaint once, then again to fully comprehend it. Shaking his head in amazement, he keeps a straight face as he has drafted this Order.

How the gentry cares does this guy own a $200K+ house and a Mercedes? And I love his crushing debt - there's no way he can pay even his base monthly expenses on his lovely income.

GAY's request for a SEAL on his information. Someone already posted Document #4 earlier where the judge denied his request. (Weird that Doc #3 wasn't posted until many hours later)

Also, GAY lied to us. In his "sets the record straight" video #1, he said this about his first document:

GAY posted:
First of all, I admit that form I did was done in a rush and the complete form I'm doing again will be done with a little more thought.

This next form was just as good awful as the first. I think he needs to get some crayons and a coloring book and master coloring in the lines first before he tackles a big boy task like writing coherently and legibly.

in forma pauperis

On the 11th of March 2010, the case was dismissed as George not only filled out the complaint incorrectly [2] <sup>12</sup>, but also used the wrong color crayon when doing so. Also of note was that an in forma pauperis (IFP) application was accepted. An IFP is described as a petition filed by a poor person in order to proceed in court without having to pay court costs such as filing fees. [4] <sup>12</sup>. So much for the six income figure.

Streisand'

George, not being content with being a laughing stock on SA, decided that he'd give the court system something to laugh at when he petitioned for the already opened IFP application to be sealed [5] <sup>12</sup>. The honourable judge, seeing that the ball couldn't be unrun, told George to STFU and start paying for the court costs if he wished to keep his information under wraps when filing frivolous lawsuits [6] <sup>12</sup>. And Again [7] <sup>12</sup>. And again [8] <sup>12</sup>. And again [9] <sup>12</sup>. And again [10] <sup>12</sup>. And again [11] <sup>12</sup>. And infinitum.

14

If Yerd would prefer to keep his financial or other personal information private, he may withdraw his Motion and pay the required filing fees.

 GAY is not taking no for an answer from the judge. He has written up another request for sealing of his documents. Let's stay tuned for the judge's reply!
 (I wrote a PHP script that fires every 15 minutes and checks for new GG Court Docs.)
 EDIT: Reading his docs really makes your brain hurt.
